

The Pianist Who Tried

84 10 15

Chapter 1 by Story Wars

He tried.

Chapter 2 by JP Adams

He failed.

He tried over and over again. He grunted, tensed, swore under his breath, and began to sweat. He pushed with his legs and hips, over and over again - thrusting upward each time. He tried to get the balance just right, to not rush the experience; but it wasn't easy, and he felt like he was going to explode.

He tried. No one can say he didn't.

Finally, the tension got the better of him, and he had to stop. He looked at the thing, and had to finally admit he wouldn't be able to move the damn piano himself.

Chapter 3 by Meldoy

He tried. He tried his best.

People say trying your best is good enough but it actually isn't.

The pianist thinks, he thinks its a signal that you weak, and people are telling you to give up.

Chapter 4 by Comp Som "CS" Anichi
